

Letter from Mabel Hubbard Bell to Alexander Graham Bell, October 15, with transcript

Letter from Mrs. Alexander Graham Bell to Dr. Alexander Graham Bell. 1331 Connecticut Avenue, Washington, D.C. (October 15th) 1891? My dear little Man:

This is to welcome you to Boston and the land of the free. I am so glad you will be here so soon, it is just ages since I saw you last. It is one thing for Mamma and Grace to leave Baddeck for Twin Oaks and another for me to leave Beinn Bhreagh for a house in the city. The long winter months before me stretch out an interminable vista, at home the days fly only too fast. However I am going to have you, if only for a few days and I won't begin to wail until after you have gone. Only don't don't delay, but come.

I think it just lovely in you to stop at Antigonish, no wasn't it Truro, for that Teachers Convention. I take it as an especial favor to myself and thank you ever so much.

Now goodnight. I am going to copy my letter to Mr. Warren the second time as I find I have spelt two words wrong and that would never do.

Ever your Mabel. October 15th.
